(Bill No. 31 of 2008)

A

Bill
to further amend the Goa Panchayat Raj Act, 1994

BE it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Goa in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short Title and Commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Goa Panchayat Raj (Amendment) Act, 2008.

2. Amendment of Section 46.— In section 46 of the Goa Panchayat Raj Act, 1994, after sub-section (1), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:

"Provided that, in the case of a women candidate for election to the offices of Sarpanch and Deputy Sarpanch reserved for women candidates, the nominations shall be by self and there shall be no requirement for proposer or seconder."

3. Amendment of Section 51.— In section 51 of the Goa Panchayat Raj Act, 1994, after the second proviso to sub-section (1), the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:

“Provided also that no notice of motion of no confidence shall be moved against a women Sarpanch or women Deputy Sarpanch occupying such office reserved for her, before she had completed a period of one year in office.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Reservation of women in local bodies, despite Constitutional and statutory provisions, remains unachieved for various reasons. At practical level, women candidates are unable to find proposers and seconders for their nomination as Sarpanch or Deputy Sarpanch. If this provision requiring proposer and seconder is liberalized, there will be at least women competing for the said offices. This would be the first step towards facilitating women empowerment as envisaged by the reservation provisions. Besides this, women, after election to these offices, need a minimum period in office to assume stability. The constant fear of being removed from office affects their functioning and only a concession towards them in political terms like an assured tenure for one year, may bring about the desired stability in their functioning thereby translating the noble vision of women empowerment becoming a reality in grass root level bodies.

3. This Bill seeks to amend the Goa Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 to achieve these objectives.
