Statement of objects and Reasons

The Bill seeks to amend clause (a) of section 2 of the Goa Tax on Luxuries Act, 1988 (Act 17 of 1988)(hereinafter referred to as the “said Act”), so as to include open space utilized for commercial purposes within the ambit of definition of “accommodation provided for commercial purpose” under the said Act, to cover the exhibitions conducted by the non-resident dealers.

The Bill seeks to amend clause (f) of section 2 of the said Act, so as to exclude the entertainment, such as boat cruise, river cruise, water sports and casinos, from definition of “luxury provided in a hotel” under the said Act, since these are being brought under Goa Entertainment Tax Act, 1964 (Act 2 of 1964).

The Bill seeks to insert new sub-section (7) , to section 5 of the said Act so as to empower the Government to reduce any rate of tax or enhance any rate of tax, by notification in the Official Gazette .

The Bill seeks to omit section 5A of the said Act, since the Hon’ble Supreme Court has struck down the provision of levy of luxury tax on stock of luxuries in Writ Petition between Godfrey Phillips India Ltd. and another V. State of U.P. and others , reported in AIR 2005 S.C. 1103, has held that, no State can, by describing an item as a luxury , seek to levy tax on its supply.

The Bill seeks to amend section 5B of the said Act so as to levy tax at the rate of ten percent on the turnover of receipts of the proprietor, for accommodation provided for commercial purposes.

The Bill also seeks to omit certain provisions of the said Act including section 5C of the said Act, as they have become redundant.

The Bill seeks to amend section 9A of the said Act so as to provide that the Registration Certificate granted under the said Act shall be renewed every year in the month of September/October, as tourist season in Goa starts from November every year. This will help the Department to monitor the registration better, and also help the Department to built data base of availability of rooms.

The Bill seeks to amend section 22 of the said Act so as to provide for refund of tax unduly paid.

The Bill seeks to amend Schedule appended to the said Act, so as to provide that where the charge for luxury provided in a hotel is not exceeding Rs. 200/- per day, no tax is payable.

Similarly, the Government proposes to rationalize the rates of tax and do away with the existing system of levy of tax. Hence, where the charge for luxury provided in a hotel is exceeding Rs. 200/- but does not exceed Rs. 1,500/- per day, the rate of tax shall be at 5%; exceeding Rs. 1,500/- and upto Rs. 3,000/-, rate of tax will be at 8% and exceeding Rs. 3000/- the rate of tax will be at 10%. The time share accommodation is proposed to be notionally taxed @ 5% for Rs. 1000/- per day.

The Bill further seeks to amend Schedule II appended to the said Act so as to specify revised rates of fees for registration of hotels based on rooms capacity.

This Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

Financial Memorandum

No financial implications are involved in this Bill since no additional expenditure will be incurred on account of the proposed amendment.

Memorandum Regarding Delegated Legislation

Clause 1 (2) of the Bill empowers the Government to appoint a date for bringing into force the Act, by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 3 (iii) of the Bill empowers the Government to reduce or enhance, any rate of tax, by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 10 of the Bill empowers the Government to frame rules prescribing the manner in which the Commissioner shall refund the amount of excess tax or tax unduly paid.

c) Where the hotel is classified as 'A' or 'B' grade under the Goa, Daman and Diu Registration of Tourist Trade Act, 1982 (Act No. 10 of 1982), and having swimming pool.	10% of the charge per day of luxury provided
II) Category 'B'
All other hotels not covered by Category; A above,	3% of the charge per day of the luxury provided

Note:- Where the luxuries provided in a hotel are under Timeshare Agreement or under Package Deal Agreement or under any such system, other than those covered by Category 'A' above, the rate of tax for the charge of the luxuries provided shall be in accordance with Category 'B' above.

Provided that where the charges are levied otherwise than on daily basis, then the charges for determining the tax liability under this section shall be computed proportionately for a day and based on the total period of occupation of the accommodation for which the charges are made.

(3) Where in addition to the charges for luxury provided in a hotel, service charges are levied and appropriated by the hotelier and not paid to the staff, then such charges shall be deemed to be part of the charges for luxury provided in the hotel.

'[(4) Where luxury provided in a hotel to any person (not being an employee of the hotel) is not charged at all, nevertheless there shall be levied and collected a tax on such luxury at one-fourth of the rates specified in sub-section (2), as if full charges for such luxury were paid to the hotelier].

(5) The tax shall not be levied and payable in respect of the turnover of receipts for supply of food and drinks, on the sale of which the hotelier is liable to pay sales tax under the Goa Sales Tax Act, 1964(Act4of1964).

(6) For the purposes of this Act, tax collected separately by the hotelier shall not be considered to be part of the receipt of the turnover of receipts of the hotelier.

5A. LEVY OF TAX ON LUXURIES.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall be levied and collected a tax on the turnover of stock of luxuries, in respect, of luxuries mentioned in column (2) of the Schedule I, at the rate specified in the corresponding entry in column (3) of the Schedule.

(2) The tax levied under sub-section (1) shall be paid by every registered stockist or a stockist liable to get himself registered under this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), but subject to the production of proof as may be prescribed, no tax shall be leviable on the value of stock of luxuries,-

(i) dispatched to places outside the State;

(ii) on which tax under this Act has been paid or has become payable.

5B. LEVY OF TAX ON ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR COMMERCIAL PURPOSES.

Subject to the provisions of this Act there shall be levied and collected a tax at the rate of 12 per cent on the turnover of receipts of the proprietor or rupees two hundred and fifty per day, whichever is higher, for accommodation provided for commercial purposes

5C. LEVY OF SURCHARGE.

The tax payable under sub-section (2) of section 5 shall be increased by surcharge calculated at the rate of 10 percent of such tax.

6. LIABILITY OF HOTELIERS OR PROPRIETORS OR STOCKISTS, AS THE CASE MAY BE TO TAX.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and rules made thereunder, there shall be paid by every hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, who is liable to pay tax under this Act, the tax or taxes leviable in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) If a person other than the owner (including part-owner) is for the time being in charge of the hotel, then such person and the owner (including part-owner) shall jointly and severally be liable to pay the tax.

7. LIABILITY OF FIRMS AS HOTELIERS OR PROPRIETORS OR STOCKISTS, AS THE CASE MAY BE.

Where a hotel or business is owned, managed or run by a firm, then the firm and each of the partners of the firm shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of tax:

Provided that where any partner retires from the firm, he shall be liable to pay the tax, penalty or interest payable under this Act, if any, remaining unpaid at the time of his retirement, and any tax due upto the date of his retirement, even if assessment of tax including any penalty (if any) is made at a later date.

8. SPECIAL PROVISION REGARDING LIABILITY IN CERTAIN CASES.

(1) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be liable to pay tax under this Act, dies, then -

(a) if the business carried on by the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, is continued after his death by his legal representative or any other person, such legal representative or other person shall be liable to pay the tax including any penalty due from such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, under this Act in the like manner and to the same extent as the deceased hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be; or

(b) if the business carried on by the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, is discontinued, whether before or after his death, his legal representative shall be liable to pay out of the estate of the deceased, in the like manner and to the same extent as the deceased hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, would have been liable to pay if he had not died, the tax (including any penalty) due from such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, under this Act, whether such tax (including any penalty) has been assessed before his death but has remained unpaid or is assessed after his death.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression legal representative has the meaning assigned to it in clause (11) of section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908).

2) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act is a Hindu undivided family and the joint property is partitioned amongst the various members or group of members, then each member or group of members shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the tax (including any penalty) due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, under this Act upto the time of partition whether such tax (including any penalty) has been assessed before partition but has remained unpaid or is assessed after partition.

(3) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act is a firm and the firm is dissolved, then every person who was a partner shall be jointly and severally liable to pay to the extent to which he is liable under section 7, the tax (including any penalty) due from the firm under this Act upto the time of dissolution, whether such tax (including any penalty) has been assessed before such dissolution but has remained unpaid or is assessed after dissolution.

(4) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act, transfers or otherwise disposes of his business in whole or in part or effects any change in the ownership thereof, in consequence of which he is succeeded in the business or part thereof by any other person, then the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, and the person succeeding shall jointly and severally be liable to pay the tax (including any penalty) due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, under this Act upto the time of such transfer, disposal or change, whether such tax (including any penalty) has been assessed before such transfer, disposal or change but has remained unpaid, or is assessed thereafter.

(5) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act, -

(a) is the guardian of a ward on whose behalf the business is carried on by the guardian, or

(b) is a trustee who carries on the business under a trust for a beneficiary, then, if the guardianship or trust is terminated, the ward or, as the case may be, the beneficiary shall be liable to pay the tax (including any penalty) due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, upto the time of termination of the guardianship or trust, whether such tax (including any penalty) has been assessed before the termination of the guardianship or trust, but has remained unpaid, or is assessed thereafter.

(6) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay the tax under this Act is succeeded in the business by any person in the manner described in clause (a) of sub-section (1) or in sub-section (4), then such person, unless he already holds a certificate of registration, shall, within 30 days thereof, apply for registration.

9. REGISTRATION OF HOTELIERS OR PROPRIETORS OR STOCKISTS, AS THE CASE MAY BE.

(1) No hotelier or proprietor or stockist, liable to pay the tax under section 5 or under section 5A or under section 5B or under subsection (6) of section 8 shall provide accommodation or other luxuries by way of business, unless he possesses a valid certificate of registration as provided by this Act:

Provided that, it shall be lawful for the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist to provide or continue to provide accommodation or other luxuries by way of business, if he has applied for registration within the time provided under subsection (2).

(2) Every hotelier or proprietor or stockist required to possess a certificate of registration shall apply in the prescribed form on payment of fees specified in Schedule II appended hereto, to the Commissioner within 30 days from the date on which he becomes liable to pay the tax.

(3) If the Commissioner, after such inquiry as he deems fit, is satisfied that an application for registration is in order, he shall register the applicant and issue to him a certificate of registration in the prescribed form.

(4) The Commissioner may after considering any information furnished or otherwise called for or received under any provisions of this Act, amend from time to time the certificate of registration.

(5) Where a registered hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case maybe, discontinues, transfers or otherwise disposes of his activity of providing accommodation by way of business or where he ceases to be liable to pay the tax and he applies in the prescribed form to the Commissioner, then the Commissioner shall, after making such inquiry as may be necessary, cancel the certificate of registration with effect from such date as he may fix in accordance with the rules.

(6) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that any registered hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, has discontinued, transferred or otherwise disposed of the activity of providing accommodation by way of business and has failed to apply under sub-section (5) for cancellation of certificate of registration, the Commissioner may, after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, cancel the certificate of registration with effect from such date as he may fix to be the date from which the said activity has been discontinued, transferred or otherwise disposed of:

Provided that, the cancellation of certificates of registration on an application of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, or otherwise shall not effect the liability of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be to pay the tax (including any penalty) due for any period upto the date of cancellation whether such tax (including any penalty), is assessed before or after the date of cancellation.

9A. RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE.

Every hotelier or proprietor or stockist liable for registration under this Act, shall have to get his registration certificate renewed every year on payment of charges specified in Schedule II appended hereto.

10. NON-TRANSFERABILITY OF REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE.

Save as otherwise provided in section 12, a certificate of registration shall be personal to the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, to whom it is granted and shall not be transferable.

11. INFORMATION TO BE FURNISHED REGARDING CHANGES IN BUSINESS, ETC.

(1) If a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act, -

(a) sells or otherwise disposes of his business or any part thereof, or effects or makes any other change to his knowledge in the ownership of the business; or

(b) discontinues his business, or changes the place thereof or opens a new place of business; or

(c) changes the name or nature of his business; or

(d) enters into a partnership or other association in regard to his business, he shall within the prescribed time, inform the prescribed authority accordingly.

(2) Where any such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, dies, his executor, administrator or other legal representative or where any such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, is a firm and there is a change in the constitution of the firm or the firm is dissolved, every person who was a partner thereof, shall, in like manner, inform the said authority of such death, change in the constitution or, as the case may be, dissolution.

12. CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION TO CONTINUE IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES.

Where a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be;-

(a) effects change in the name of his business; or

(b) is a firm, and there is a change in the constitution of the firm without dissolution thereof; or

(c) is a trustee of a trust, and there is change in the trustees thereof; or

(d) is a guardian of a ward, and there is change in the guardian, then merely by reason of any of the circumstances aforesaid, it shall not be necessary for the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, or the firm with the changed constitution, or the new trustees, or new guardian, to apply for a fresh certificate of registration and on information being furnished in the manner required by section 11 the certificate of registration shall be amended.

13. PAYMENT OF TAX AND RETURNS.

(1) Tax payable under this Act shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided and at such intervals as may be prescribed.

(2) Such hoteliers or proprietors or stockists, as the case may be, as may be required so to do by the Commissioner by notice served in the prescribed manner and every registered hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, shall furnish returns of the total turnover of the period to which such returns relate, in such manner, by such date and to such authority as may be prescribed.

(3) Before any registered hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, furnishes the returns required by sub-section (2), he shall pay into a Government Treasury or the State Bank of India or in such other manner as may be prescribed the full amount of tax due from him under this Act according to such returns, and shall furnish along with the returns a receipt from such Treasury or Bank showing the payment of such amount.

(4) If any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, having furnished returns under sub-section (2), discovers any omission or incorrect statement, he may furnish a revised return before the expiry of three months next following the last date prescribed for furnishing the original return and if the revised return shows a greater amount of tax to be due than was shown in the original return, it shall be accompanied by a receipt showing the payment in the manner provided in sub-section (3) of the extra amount.

Provided that no such revised return shall be considered as such and it shall not be taken into consideration, if the assessing authority is satisfied that the return originally furnished was with the intention to delay the payment of tax due in time, or with intent to defraud the State Government of its revenue.

(4A) Any tax assessed or any other amount due under this Act from a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, or any other person may, without prejudice to any other mode of collection, be recovered.-

(a) as if it were an arrears of land revenue; or

(b) by attachment and sale or by sale without attachment of any property of such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, or any other person by the Officer appointed under sub-section (2) of section 3, in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.

(5) With a view to encourage prompt payment of tax the State Government may prescribe rates of remissions or rebate in respect thereof in accordance with such principles as may be prescribed.

(6) (a) The hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, shall pay the amount of tax assessed or reassessed for any period under section 14 or section 16 of this Act less any sum already paid by him in respect of such period; and

(b) The amount of penalty, if any, levied under this Act shall be paid by the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, or by the person liable therefore into the appropriate government Treasury by such date as may be specified in a notice or order issued under this Act being a date not earlier than sixty days from the date of service of notice or order.

Provided further that, the Commissioner or any person appointed to assist him under sub-section (2) of section 3, may, in respect of any particular hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be or person, and for reasons to be recorded in writing and on payment of interest at such rate as may be specified in the order, extend the date of such payment or allow him to pay tax due or penalty or interest levied, if any, by installments.

(7) (a) When a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, is in default in making payment of the tax assessed or re-assessed or of penalty imposed or interest levied, there shall be paid by such [hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be], for the period commencing from the date of expiry of the date specified in the notice for payment and ending on the date of payment of the amount, simple interest at the rate of 24% per annum of the amount not so paid].

(b) [Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), the Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, remit the whole or any part of the interest payable in respect of any period by any person or class of persons].

(c) 3[Any amount of tax or penalty or interest which remains unpaid after the date prescribed for payment or the date specified in the notice for payment, or in the order of imposition of penalty, or after the extended date of payment and any installments not duly paid, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue].

(8) The State Government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette, authorize any Officer not below the rank of a Luxury Tax Officer, to exercise, for the purpose of effecting recovery of the amount of tax or penalty due from any hotelier, proprietor or stockist, as the case may be or person under this Act the powers of a Collector under the Goa, Daman and Diu Land Revenue Code, 1968 (Act 9 of 1969) to recover the dues as arrears of land revenue.

14. ASSESSMENT OF TAX.

(1) The amount of tax due from a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be liable to pay tax shall be assessed separately for each year during which he is so liable.

Provided that, the Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, assess the tax due from any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be during a part of a year.

(2) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the returns furnished by a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be in respect of any period are correct and complete, he shall assess the amount of tax due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be on the basis of such returns.

(3) If the Commissioner is not satisfied that the returns furnished by a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be in respect of any period are correct and complete, and he thinks it necessary to require the presence of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be or the production of further evidence, he shall serve on such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be a notice requiring him on a date and at a place specified thereon, either to attend and produce or cause to be produced all evidence on which such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be relies in support of his returns, or to produce such evidence as is specified in the notice. On the date specified in the notice, or as soon as may be thereafter, the Commissioner shall, after considering all the evidence which may be produced, assess the amount of tax due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be.

(4) If a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, fails to comply with the terms of any notice issued under sub-section (3), the Commissioner shall assess to the best of his judgement, the amount of tax due from him.

(5) Where all the returns are filed by a registered hotelier or proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be for any year ending on or after the appointed day by the prescribed dates, on or before the date prescribed for filing the last return of that year, no order of assessment under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) in respect of that year shall be made after the expiry of four years from the end of the said year, and if for any reason such order is not made within the period aforesaid, then returns so filed shall be deemed to have been accepted correct and complete for assessing the tax due from such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be.

Explanation.— In the case of returns filed by a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (q) of section 2, the period of four years shall be computed from the end of the financial year in which the year, by reference to which the accounts of that hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be are maintained in his books, ends;

Provided that, where such assessment is made in consequence of or to give effect to any order of an appellate or revisional authority or of a Court, the period of four years or six years, as the case may be, shall be reckoned from the date of such order;

(6) If a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be does not furnish return in respect of any period by the prescribed date, the Commissioner shall, at any time within four years from the end of the year in which such period occurs, after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be a reasonable opportunity of being heard, proceed to assess, to the best of his judgement, the amount of tax (if any) due from him.

(7) If the Commissioner has reason to believe, that a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be is liable to pay tax in respect of any period, but has failed to apply for registration or failed to apply for registration within time as required by section 9, the Commissioner shall, at any time, within six years from the end of the year in which such period occurs, after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, proceed to assess, to the best of his judgement, the amount of tax (if any) due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be in respect of that period, and any period or periods subsequent thereto.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, where the Commissioner is not satisfied about the correctness or completeness of the accounts of a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, or where no method of accounting has been regularly employed by a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be the Commissioner may, after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess to the best of his judgement, the amount of tax (if any) due from him.

(9) Any assessment made under this section shall be without prejudice to any penalty, or prosecution for an offence, under this Act.

15. APPLICABILITY OF PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT TO THE PERSON LIABLE TO PAY TAX UNDER SECTION 8.

Where in respect of any tax (including any penalty and interest) due from the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, under this Act, any other person is liable for payment thereof under section 8, then such other person shall be deemed to be a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, for the purpose of this Act, and all the relevant provisions of this Act shall in respect of such liability apply to such person also, as if he were the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be.

16. RE-ASSESSMENT OF TURNOVER ESCAPING ASSESSMENT, UNDER ASSESSED, ETC.

(1) If a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, has been assessed under section 14 for any year or part thereof and where for any reason the whole or any part of the turnover of receipts in respect of that year or part thereof has escaped assessment, or has been under-assessed or assessed at a lower rate, or any deduction has been wrongly made, then the Commissioner may, at any time within five years of the end of that year, after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, proceed to assess or re-assess, to the best of his judgement, the amount of tax due from such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be;

Provided that, the amount of tax shall be assessed at the rates at which it would have been assessed had there been no under-assessment or escapements;

Provided further that, where in respect of such turnover of receipts an order has already been passed in appeal or revision under this Act, the Commissioner shall make a report to the appropriate appellate or revising authority under this Act, which shall thereupon after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such order as it deems fit.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to any proceeding (including any notice issued) under section 33 or section 36.

(3) Nothing in section 33 and 36 shall affect any proceeding under this section.

17. IMPOSITION OF PENALTY.

(1) If, while assessing or re-assessing the amount of tax due from a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, under any provisions of this Act or while passing any order in any appeal, revision or rectification proceedings, it appears to the Commissioner that such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, has-

(a) failed to apply for registration as required by section 9 or has carried on business, without being registered, in contravention of section 9; or

(b) failed, without reasonable cause, to comply with any notice in respect of the proceedings under sections 14, 16, or 27 or 33; or

(c) failed to disclose any transaction of receipt or has failed to furnish return by the prescribed date or has failed to show in the return the appropriate liability to pay tax or has failed to disclose fully and truly all material facts necessary for the proper and correct quantification of the tax liability, then the Commissioner may after giving the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, an opportunity of being heard, by order in writing impose upon the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, by way of penalty, in addition to any tax assessed or re-assessed or found due in the appeal or revision or rectification proceedings, as the case may be, a sum not exceeding one-and-a-half times the amount of tax so assessed or re-assessed or found due in the appeal or revision or rectification proceedings.

18. IMPOSITION OF PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENING CERTAIN PROVISIONS.

(1) If any person —

(a) (i) not being a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act collects any sum by way of tax; or

(ii) being a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, collects any amount by way of tax in excess of the tax payable by him; or

(iii) otherwise collects tax in contravention of the provisions of section 24; or

(b) being a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act, or being a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, who was required so to do by the Commissioner by a notice, served on him, fails in contravention of sub-section (1) of section 26 to keep a true account of his turnover of receipts or fails when directed so to do under that section to keep any account or record in accordance with direction, he shall be liable to pay, in addition to any tax for which he may be liable, a penalty of an amount as follows:-

(i) Where there has been contravention referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (a), a penalty of an amount not exceeding two thousand rupees or double the sum collected by way of tax, whichever is less.

(ii) Where there has been a contravention referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) or in clause (b), a penalty of an amount not exceeding two thousand rupees and in addition, any sum collected by the person by way of tax in contravention of section 24 shall be forfeited to the State Government].

(2) If the Commissioner, in the course of any proceeding under this Act or otherwise, has reason to believe that any person has become liable to a penalty or forfeiture or both penalty and forfeiture of any sum under sub-section (1), he shall serve on such person a notice in the prescribed manner requiring him on a date and at a place specified in the notice to attend and show cause why a penalty or forfeiture or both penalty and forfeiture of any sum as provided in sub-section (1) should not be imposed on him.

(3) The Commissioner shall thereupon hold an inquiry and shall make such order as he thinks fit.

(4) No prosecution for an offence under this Act shall be instituted in respect of the same facts on which a penalty has been imposed under this section.

(5) When any order of forfeiture is made, the Commissioner shall publish or cause to be published a notice thereof for the information of the persons concerned giving such details and in such manner as may be prescribed.

19. ROUNDING OF TAX, ETC.

The amount of tax, penalty, interest, composition money, fine or any other sum payable under the provisions of this Act, shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee and, for this purpose, where such amount contains a part of a rupee consisting of paise, then, if such part is fifty paise or more, it shall be increased to one rupee, and if such part is less than fifty paise, it shall be ignored;

Provided that, nothing in this section shall apply for the purpose of collection by the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, of any amount by way of tax under this Act.

20. CHARGE ON THE PROPERTY OF DEFAULTER AND LEVY OF INTEREST FOR DELAYED PAYMENT OF TAX.

(1) If a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, or person does not pay the tax within the time he is required by or under the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder to pay it, then,-

(i) the whole of the amount outstanding on the date of default shall become immediately due and shall be a charge on the properties of the person or persons liable to pay the tax under this Act; and

(ii) the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, or the person shall be liable to pay by way of simple interest, in addition to the amount of such tax, a sum equal to,-

(a) one and half percent of the amount of such tax for each month, for the first three months after the last date by which he should have paid such tax;

(b) two percent of such amount for each month subsequent to the first three months as aforesaid.

Explanation.— For the purpose of clause (ii) above, the interest payable for a part of the month shall be worked out proportionately.

(2) If any tax, other than the tax on which interest is leviable under sub-section (1), has remained unpaid on the date prescribed for filing the last return in respect of any period of assessment, then the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be; or the person shall be liable to pay by way of simple interest, a sum equal to two percent on such tax for each month or part thereof on the expiry of 30 days from the date immediately following the date on which the period for which the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, or person has been assessed expires, till the date of order of assessment and where any payment of such unpaid tax, whether in full or in part, is made on or before the date of order of assessment, the amount of such interest shall be calculated by taking into consideration the amount and the date of such payment. If, as a result of any order passed under this Act, the amount of tax which had so remained unpaid is enhanced or reduced, as the case may be, the interest shall be enhanced or reduced, accordingly.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, remit the whole or any part of the interest payable in respect of any period by any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, person or class of persons.

(20A). SPECIAL MODE OF RECOVERY.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract to the contrary, the Commissioner may, at any time, or from time to time, by notice in writing, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, at his last address known to the Commissioner, require,-

(a) any person from whom any amount of money is due or may become due to a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, who has failed to pay the amount of tax due or penalty imposed under this Act, or

(b) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such hotelier or a proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, to pay to the Commissioner, either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (but not before the money becomes due or is held as aforesaid), so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, in respect of the arrears of tax and penalty, or both, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this section, the amount of money due to a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, from, or money held for or on account of a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, by any person, shall be calculated after deducting therefrom such claims, if any, lawfully subsisting as may have fallen due for payment by such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, to such person.

(2) The Commissioner may at any time, amend or revoke any such notice, or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of such notice.

(3) Any person making any payment in compliance with a notice under this section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, and the receipt of the Commissioner shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person, to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt.

(4) Any person discharging any liability to the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, after receipt of the notice referred to in this section shall be personally liable to the Commissioner to the extent of the liability discharged, or to the extent of the liability of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, for tax and penalty, whichever is less.

(5) Where a person to whom a notice under this section is sent objects to it, by a statement in writing that the sum demand or any part thereof is not due or payable to the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, or that the amount held for or on account of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, is under genuine dispute, the Commissioner shall hold an inquiry and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to such person and the hotelier or the proprietor or of the stockist, as the case may be, shall make such order as he thinks fit.

(6) Any amount of money which a person is required to pay to the Commissioner or for which he is personally liable to the Commissioner under this section shall, if it remains unpaid, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

21. EXEMPTION.

(1) Subject to such conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if it deems necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any specified class of luxuries provided in a hotel from payment of the whole or any part of tax payable under the provisions of this Act and such exemption shall take effect from the date of the publication of the notification in the Official Gazette or such other date as may be mentioned therein.

(2) Where a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, or a person has availed of such exemption and any of the conditions subject to which such exemption was granted are not complied with, for any reason whatsoever, then such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, or person shall be liable to pay luxury tax on the luxury provided in a hotel, in accordance with the other provisions of this Act.

(3) If the Commissioner has reason to believe that any person is liable to pay tax under sub-section (2), the Commissioner shall, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess the amount of tax so due.

22. REFUND.

(1) The Commissioner shall refund to a person the amount of tax and penalty (if any) paid by such person in excess of the amount due from him. The refund may be either by cash payment or, at the option of the person, by deduction of such excess from the amount of tax and penalty due in respect of any other period;

Provided that, the Commissioner shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due in respect of which a notice under sub-section (6) of section 13 has been issued, and shall then refund the balance (if any).

(2) Where any refund is due to any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, according to the return furnished by him for any period, such refund may provisionally be adjusted by him against the tax due and payable as per the returns furnished under section 13 for any period;

Provided that, the amount of tax or penalty or interest or all of them due from, and payable by, the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, on the date of such adjustment shall first be deducted from such refund before making adjustment.

24. PROHIBITION AGAINST COLLECTION OF TAX IN CERTAIN MATTERS.

(1) No person shall collect any sum by way of tax in respect of his business to the extent that he is not liable to pay it under this Act.

(2) No person, who is not a registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, and liable to pay tax in respect of luxury provided in any hotel, shall collect any sum by way of tax from any other person and no registered hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, shall collect any amount by way of tax in excess of the amount of tax payable by him under the provision of this Act;

Provided that, this sub-section shall not apply where a person is required to collect such amount of the tax separately in order to comply with the conditions and restrictions imposed on him under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

25. BILL OR CASH MEMORANDUM TO BE ISSUED TO CUSTOMER.

A registered hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, shall issue to the customer or customers a bill or cash memorandum serially numbered, signed and dated by him or his servant, manager or agent and showing therein such other particulars as may be prescribed. He shall keep a counterfoil or duplicate of such bill or cash memorandum duly signed and dated, and preserve it until the assessment for the relevant period is duly completed in accordance with the provisions of section 14 of the Act and for a further period of five years thereafter.

26. ACCOUNTS.

(1) Every hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, liable to pay tax under this Act, and every hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, who is required so to do by the Commissioner by notice served on him in the prescribed manner, shall keep a true account of the luxury provided by him in the hotel.

(2) If the Commissioner considers that the accounts kept are not sufficiently clear or intelligible to enable him to determine whether or not a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, is liable to tax during any period, or are so kept as not to enable a proper scrutiny of the returns or the statement furnished, the Commissioner may require such hotelier proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, by notice in writing to keep such accounts in such form or manner as in his opinion is necessary for the purpose of proper assessment and as he may, subject to anything that may be prescribed in that behalf, in writing direct.

(3) The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as may be prescribed in this behalf, by notice in writing direct any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, or by notification in the Official Gazette, direct any class of hoteliers or proprietors or stockists, as the case may be, to maintain accounts and records showing such particulars regarding their business in such form, and in such manner, as may be specified by him.

(4) Every registered hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, shall ordinarily keep all his accounts, registers and documents relating to his business at the place or places of business specified in his certificate of registration or, with the previous approval of the Commissioner at such other place as may be approved by the Commissioner.

27. PRODUCTION AND INSPECTION OF ACCOUNTS AND DOCUMENTS AND SEARCH OF PREMISES.

(1) The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, require any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, to produce before him any accounts or documents, or to furnish any information, relating to his business, or any other information as may be necessary for the purpose of this Act.

(2) All accounts, registers and documents relating to the business of any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, and cash kept in any place of business of any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, shall at all reasonable time be open to inspection by the Commissioner and the Commissioner or any person authorized by him may take or cause to be taken such copies or extracts of the said accounts, registers or documents and such inventory of cash found as appear to him necessary for the purpose of this Act.

(3) If the Commissioner has reason to believe that any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, has evaded or is attempting to evade the payment of any tax due from him, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, seize such accounts, registers or documents of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, as may be necessary, and shall grant a receipt for the same, and shall retain the same for so long as may be necessary in connection with any proceeding under this Act or for a prosecution.

(4) For the purpose of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), the Commissioner may enter and search any place of business of any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, or any other place where the Commissioner has reasons to believe that the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be keeps or is for the time being keeping any accounts, registers or documents of his business.

(5) Where a person to whom a notice under this section is sent objects to it, by a statement in writing that the

28. HOTELIER OR PROPRIETOR OR STOCKIST, AS THE CASE MAY BE TO DECLARE THE NAME OF OWNER OF BUSINESS.

Every hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, who is liable to pay tax, and who is a Hindu undivided family, or an association or club or society or firm or company, or corporation who carries on business as the guardian or trustee or otherwise on behalf of another person, shall within the period prescribed send to the authority prescribed, a declaration in the manner prescribed stating the name of the person or persons who is the owner or who are the owners of the hotel. Such declaration may be revised from time to time.

29. POWER TO COLLECT STATISTICS.

(1) If the State Government considers that for the purposes of the better administration of this Act, it is necessary so to do, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that statistics be collected relating to any matter dealt with by or under this Act.

(2) Upon such direction being made, the State Government or any person or persons authorized by it in this behalf may, by notification in the Official Gazette, and by notice in any newspaper or in such other manner as in its or his opinion is best calculated to bring the notice to the attention of the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, call upon all hoteliers or proprietors or stockists, as the case may be, or any class of hoteliers or proprietors or stockists, as the case may be, to furnish such information or returns as may be stated therein relating to any matter in respect of which statistics are to be collected. The form in which, the persons to whom or, the authorities to which such information or returns should be furnished, the particulars which they should contain, and the intervals in which such information or returns should be furnished, shall be such as may be prescribed.

30. DETERMINATION OF CERTAIN DISPUTED QUESTION.

If any question arises, otherwise than in proceeding before a Court, or before the Commissioner has commenced assessment or reassessment of a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, under section 14 or section 16, about the interpretation or the scope of any provisions of this Act, the Commissioner shall make an order determining such question.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this sub-section, the Commissioner shall be deemed to have commenced assessment or reassessment of a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, when the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, is served with a notice under section 14 or section 16, as the case may be.

(2) The Commissioner may direct that the determination shall not affect the liability of any person under this Act, as respects the period prior to the determination.

(3) If any such question arises from any order already passed; under this Act, no such question shall be entertained for determination under this section, but such question may be raised in appeal against or by way of revision of such order.

31. POWERS OF COMMISSIONER.

(1) In discharging his functions by or unto this Act, the Commissioner shall have all the powers of a Civil Court for the purpose of—

- (a) proof of facts by affidavit;
- (b) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person, and examining him on oath or affirmation;
- (c) compelling the production of documents; and
- (d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) In the case of any affidavit to be made for the purpose of this Act, any Officer appointed by the Commissioner may administer the oath to the deponent.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, where a person, to whom a summon is issued by the Commissioner either to attend to give evidence or produce books of accounts, registers or other documents at a certain place and time, intentionally omits to attend or produce the documents at the place and time, the Commissioner may impose on him such fine not exceeding five hundred rupees as he thinks fit; and the fine so levied may be recovered in the manner provided in this Act for recovery of arrears of tax;

Provided that, before imposing any such fine, the person concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard,

(4) If any documents are produced by a person on whom a summon was issued by the Commissioner, and the Commissioner has reason to believe that any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, has evaded or is attempting to evade the payment of any tax due from him and the documents produced are necessary for establishing the case against such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, impound the documents and shall grant a receipt for the same, and shall retain the same for so long as may be necessary in connection with the proceedings under this Act, or for an prosecution..

33. APPEAL, REVISION AND REVIEW.

(1) Any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, may in the prescribed manner appeal to the authority as may be prescribed, against any assessment or reassessment within sixty days from the date of communication of the order appealed against;

Provided firstly that, the said authority may entertain the appeal after expiry of the said period of sixty days, if he is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

Provided secondly that, no appeal shall be entertained by the said authority unless he is satisfied that such amount of the tax as the applicant may admit to be due from him has been paid.

(2) Subject to such rules of procedure as may be prescribed, the appellate authority, in disposing of any appeal under subsection (1), may-

(a) confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment; or

(b) set aside the assessment and direct the assessing authority to make a fresh assessment after such further inquiry as may be directed; or

(c) pass such other orders as it may think fit.

(3) (a) In the case of an order passed in appeal by the appellate authority under sub-section (2), a second appeal shall lie to the Tribunal within sixty days of the date of passing of the order.

(b) The Tribunal may admit the second appeal referred to after the period of sixty days referred to in clause (a), if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal in that period.

(4) No appeal under sub-section (3) or sub-section (9) shall be entertained by the Tribunal, and no revision application under sub-section (6) shall be entertained by the Commissioner, unless such appeal or revision application, as the case may be, is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of tax or penalty or both that may be due;

Provided that, the Tribunal or the Commissioner, as the case may be, if it or he thinks fit, for reasons to be recorded in writing, entertain any appeal or revision against any such order without making the payment as aforesaid, if the appellant or, as the case may be, the applicant furnishes suet security for such amount as it or he may direct.

(5) In disposing of an appeal, the Tribunal shall have the same powers as that of the appellate authority under sub-section (2).

(6) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Commissioner upon application or of his own motion may revise any assessment made or order passed under this Act or the rules made thereunder by a person appointed under section 3 to assist him;

Provided that, before rejecting any application for the revision of any such order, the Commissioner shall consider it and shall record reasons for such rejection :

Provided further that, no application for revision shall lie to the Commissioner in respect of any assessment if an appeal lies under sub-section (1) to the prescribed authority in respect of such assessment.

(7) The hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, may, at his option file a second appeal under sub-section

(3), or make an application for revision to the Commissioner under sub-section (6), and where the hotelier or the proprietor or the stockist, as the case may be, has exercised such option, he shall be precluded from filing an application for revision under sub-section (6), or, as the case may be, from filing a second appeal under sub-section (3).

(8) In dispensing of the revision, the Commissioner shall have the same powers as those of the appellate authority under sub-section (2).

(9) Where an order is passed by the Commissioner of his own motion under sub-section (6), an appeal shall lie to the Tribunal from that order within sixty days and an appeal filed after that period may be admitted if the Tribunal is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within that period.

(10) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, any assessment made or order passed under this Act, or rules made thereunder by any person appointed under section 3 or by the Tribunal constituted under section 4 may be reviewed by the person or the Tribunal passing it, as the case may be, upon an application or of his or its own motion, as the case may be.

(11) Before any order is passed under this section which is likely to affect any person adversely, such person shall be given reasonable opportunity of being heard.

Explanation.— In this section 'assessment' includes imposition of penalty.

34. NON-APPEALABLE ORDERS.

No appeal shall lie against,—

(i) a notice issued under this Act calling upon a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, for assessment or asking a hotelier or a proprietor or a stockist, as the case may be, to show cause as to why he should not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act or notices issued under any of the provisions of section 20 of this Act, or

(ii) an order pertaining to the seizure or retention of accounts books, registers and other documents; or

(iii) an order sanctioning a prosecution under this Act; or

(iv) an order transferring any proceeding under section 42.

42. POWER TO TRANSFER PROCEEDINGS.

The Commissioner may, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter, wherever it is possible to do so, and after recording his reasons for doing so, by order if writing transfer any proceeding or class of proceedings under any provision of this Act, from himself to any other officer and he may likewise transfer any such proceedings (including a proceeding pending with any officer or already transferred under this section) from any officer to any other officer or to himself;

Provided that, nothing in this section shall be deemed require any such opportunity to be given where the transfer is from any officer to any other officer and the offices of both officers are situated in the same city, locality or place.

Explanation.— In this section, the word proceedings in relation to any hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be whose name is specified in any order issued thereunder, means) proceedings under this Act in respect of any year which may be pending on the date of such order or which may have been completed on or before such date, and includes also all proceedings under this Act which may be commenced after the date of such order in respect of any year in relation to such hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be.

45. POWER TO MAKE RULES.— (1) The State Government may make rules for carrying out its purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may provide for —

(i) subordination of officers and persons appointed under section 3 amongst themselves;

(ii) the periods within which, the manner in which and authority to which application for registration shall be made under section 9;

(iii) the procedure for, and other matters incidental to the registration of hotelier or proprietor or stockist, as the case may be, and the granting of certificates of registration, and the form of such certificates under section 9 and the manner in which application for cancellation of registration shall be made, and the date from which cancellation of registration shall take effect;

(iv) the authority to which, and the time within which, information shall be furnished under section 11;
